St. Anthony’s Eco-Commission

Sometimes when we pray it becomes a laundry list of wants. We forget how much we have and focus on what we believe we need. Looking from the outside at the surplus that others have can fill us with discontentment. Try changing your perspective from one of envy to one of gratefulness. Finding joy in the simple ordinary things takes effort. Clean the kitchen and then step back and enjoy the fruits of your labor. Build a snowman with the kids, they will have a special memory to hold. Even a silly pillow fight brings joy to a family. Thank God for those things you do have and trust him for the things that you need.
