This week’s featured Saint—
St. Dominic
1170-1221 AD

Dominic was born in Caleruega, Spain. Led by Diego de Acebo, the prior of the local religious community, he learned the basics of religious life and contemplation. Dominic became an extraordinary preacher and eventually formed his own community with a rule of life, based on that of St. Augustine. Dominic traveled between Spain and Rome to establish the Order's foundation. In 1220, delegates of the brothers gathered in Bologna to approve the first constitutions, the first laws governing the operation of the college. Dominic died in Bologna in 1221. Today the order of the Dominicans continues to flourish. In addition to his role as a preacher, Dominic is known as the patron saint of astronomers.

Common Recycling Mistakes: Greasy Pizza Boxes

Pizza boxes are among the most common offenders when it comes to contamination. The oil seeps into the cardboard and cannot be separated from the fiber, making the material less valuable and marketable to buyers. If the box is greasy, it should be put in a composing bin or thrown out. If one side is oily, tear that off and recycle the rest.
