This week’s featured Saint — St. Hildegard of Bingen, Doctor of the Church 12th Century AD

St. Hildegard was one of the great figures of her age whose importance was forgotten for centuries, but has now resurfaced as a most important influence in the Church. In her day she was an abbess, a founder of a Benedictine convent, a prophet and preacher, a musician, artist and author, a doctor and pharmacist. From her earliest childhood she was gifted with holy visions in which the Living Light of God’s Truth taught her the meaning of Scripture, the mysteries of nature and how to read the signs of the times. She became a celebrity and was sought out for counsel by many influential people, including popes, bishops and kings. She made numerous preaching tours through the Rhineland to reform the Church and its clergy, which extended her reputation. She wrote on every aspect of human existence, including the organization of the Church, God’s relationship with all the animals and plants and the ways in which people could be saved. Her visions celebrate our human nature within the cosmos as co-creators with God in Christ, redeemed to embrace God’s original blessing. Her holistic vision has found a wide audience in recent times and in 2012, though she had never been formally canonized, Pope Benedict XVI declared her a Doctor of the Church.
