Empower Me
Teach me, Lord, to follow you, show me, Lord, Your way. With lessons from Your life and death, guide me everyday. God of Justice and of Peace, change the world through me, who looks to You for strength and grace, as others look to me. Make my witness clear and true and help me, Lord, to see what You're calling me to do, calling me to be. Fill my life with joy and light to dispel the darkness near. When sadness seems to overcome to proclaim Your presence here. (Fr. Pete)

This week’s featured Saint — St. Frances Xavier Cabrini

“Mother Cabrini” 1850-1917

Frances was born to a farm family in Italy, one of thirteen children. When she was eighteen years old both of her parents died. For a while she lived with her sister, Rose, but later moved to an orphanage and eventually became the administrator. In 1880 she moved to an abandoned Franciscan Friary and founded her own order, the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart. In 1889 she was invited to visit New York by Archbishop Corrigan and once there started to work with the poor Italian immigrants of the city. Membership in her order spread throughout America, as she traveled extensively and founded schools, hospitals, convents, and orphanages. In time, these institutions opened also in South America, Central America, Italy, and England. She became an American citizen in 1909.

Frances established more than 50 foundations to support her work throughout the world. She helped develop the Columbus Hospital in Chicago in 1892 and died there in 1917.

Pope Pius XII canonized her in 1946—the first American citizen to be declared a saint. She is the patroness of immigrants. Her feast day is Nov. 13th.
