St. Anthony of Padua Parish

May the Light of Faith shine forth from our parish as a beacon to guide our community to the Lord. When life seems difficult and troublesome, may our faith offer us security and strength. When we come together to celebrate God's gifts may the Holy Spirit fill us with joy.

This week’s featured Saint — St. Nino

4th Century - Apostle to Georgia

Nino was a captive slave girl, most probably taken from her home of Armenia. Once enslaved, she was noticed by her captors because of her kind acts and the habit of spending the night in prayer. When asked why she did this, she professed her Christianity. Her charity and love involved the power of healing which was even experienced by the queen of Georgia. The king and queen asked to be instructed in this faith. The conversion of the king and queen led to the conversion of the entire kingdom. And Nino was able to oversee the construction of the first church in Georgia. The king requested that the Emperor Constantine send clergy to Georgia to further catechize his people.

Nino was freed from slavery and spent the rest of her life in prayer at a secluded cell in the mountains. On September 30, 2016 Pope Francis was moved to tears in Georgia listening to an Aramaic rendition of Psalm 53 sung by Fr. Serafim of the Assyrian Eastern Orthodox Church and a young girl, reflecting the pain and struggle of Syrians and Iraqis. (You can hear this sung on YouTube.)

Do you feel you are being called to a liturgical ministry—acolyte, lector, cross-bearer, extraordinary minister of the Eucharist or hospital or jail ministry? If so, please contact Fr. Peter for more information on the ministry and also required training.

Pass on the Paper Towels

Instead of spending money on paper towels, buy reusable microfiber towels, which grip dirt and dust like a magnet and don’t let go, even when wet. When you’re finished, toss the towels in the wash and reuse.
