This week’s featured Saint — Saints Timothy and Titus 1st Century

Timothy and Titus are known to us from the Acts of the Apostles, some letters addressed to them and some mention of them in other letters of St. Paul.

Timothy was converted by St. Paul along with his grandmother, Lois. Timothy’s mother was a Jewish Christian. He became Paul’s trusted associate and the Letter to the Hebrews suggests that he was for a time jailed with Paul. Paul had earlier entrusted him with the care of the Church at Ephesus. Timothy was the recipient of two letters from Paul containing much personal advice and admonition and Paul sent him on several important missions.

Titus was Greek. Paul put him in charge of the Church on the island of Crete, calling him “my partner and co-worker”. Paul also sent him on several missions and took him with him to Jerusalem.

These two saints were capable and zealous and were noted in the Scriptures as having the courage and wisdom of the Apostles. There were many other saintly men and women who took leadership roles in the early Christian communities whom Paul highlights in his writings, women and men whom Paul granted apostolic dignity.

The Wednesday AA Group in our hall has changed their starting time to 7pm.

Things you can do about Climate change

If you can walk or bike instead of driving your car you are saving fuel and improving your health. In places where there are a lot of pedestrians, most transportation departments will try to make streets safer and friendlier for people. Take a walk or a bike ride instead of a Sunday drive.
