Prayer - Samuel Pugh

“O God, when we have food,
help us to remember the hungry;
When we have work,
help us to remember the jobless;
When we have homes, help us to remember those who have no home at all;
When we are without pain, help us to remember
those who suffer,
And remembering, help us to destroy
our complacency;
Bestir our compassion, and be concerned
enough to help;
By word and deed, those who cry out
for what we take for granted.
Thorough Christ Our Lord, Amen.”

All 2018 tax form requests we have received have been mailed. If you haven’t requested one yet, please contact the parish office and you can make arrangements to one up or have one mailed to you.

— This week’s featured Saint —
St. Leonie Aviat

Founder of the Oblate Sisters of St. Frances de Sales
Leonie, born in 1844, was the daughter of French shopkeepers and was educated by the sister in the Visitation convent in Troyes. She felt the call to a religious vocation and one day when she took her mother’s eyeglasses to be repaired in a factory, she was deeply affected by the condition of the young women working there.

In this era of industrialization many young women from the country came into the city looking for work only to be exploited and find themselves struggling with poverty and homelessness. The chaplain at Leonie’s school, Fr. Louis Brisson, had established a center in town to house and educate such women. Leonie volunteered there and soon administrated the center. She, Fr. Brisson and some volunteers eventually founded the Congregation of the Oblate Sisters of St. Frances de Sales. Taking their inspiration from “Jesus the Worker”, they sought to form young working women into Apostles who would spread the spirit of God’s love as God’s tools in the workplace.

The Congregation was approved in 1911 and spread to South Africa and Ecuador. Leonie served as Mother Superior. She died in 1914 and was canonized in 2001.

Lifestyles

We can make things so complicated. But we don’t need to.

“What is Life?
It is the flash of a firefly in the night.
It is the breath of a buffalo in the wintertime.
It is the little shadow which runs across the grass and loses itself in the sunset.”

- Last Words of Blackfoot Warrior Crowfoot
