Fast from rash judgement and prejudice.
Fast from what can make you sick and anxious.
Fast from anger and worry.
Fast from bitterness and complaining.
Fast from selfishness and inappropriate desire.
Fast from laziness and self-concern.

Give the alms of optimistic support.
Give others attention and a listening ear.

This week’s featured Saint

St. Casimir

1458-1483

Casimir was a Polish Prince. The son of the king. As a young man he was known to be “serene and cheerful, pleasant to all.” He was prayerful, practiced penances and embraced good works. He was an exceptional student. When he turned 15 years old, his father sent him to Hungary to be king, but warfare and political tensions were so contrary to his character that he returned to Poland to his prayer and studies. He vowed to remain celibate and continued to his charitable works that flowed from his devotion to the Eucharist and the Virgin Mary.

His biographer underscored his charity to the poor, strangers, the sick and the imprisoned and how he urged his father, the king, to be just in his rule. Casimir died at the age of 23 of lung disease. He was canonized in 1521 and is honored in Poland and Lithuania where he is buried. His witness to justice and peace, virtue and sanctity continues to inspire.

Congratulations Mr. & Mrs. Anthony & Ashley Marut
