Next Sunday, November 22 & 23 we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King which marks the end of the liturgical year. November 29 & 30 we will celebrate the First Sunday of Advent!

We are VERY EXCITED to announce that we will be back at St. Anthony’s next weekend for all of the Masses! It has been a long journey through this construction project. We thank you for your patience and support during this time. The circumstances gave us an opportunity to grow together as a community of faith. The community of St. Anthony’s is not a building, but a people! As we prepare to conclude the liturgical year and look forward to beginning a new year, we give thanks to all who worked so hard preparing and repairing our church building — the paid workers as well as the volunteers. It is coming along beautifully. In addition to a new floor, the church has been repainted with white and blues to capture the Fairport Harbor nautical atmosphere. Next weekend we are looking forward to a glorious weekend as we celebrate the great gift of Christ our King and our journey home to our own facility. We have been blessed to have been able to rent St. Michael’s facility—but there is no place like home!
